Our Sanctuary's Stained Glass Windows

Jesus' Encounter with the Samaritan Woman

John 4:14

The Samaritan woman is challenged with the merciful love of Jesus. It is only in Christ that we can find our complete fulfillment. Like the Samaritan woman, it is our personal encounter with Christ that will transform the world.

Jesus as the Bread of Life

John 6:51

The Eucharist is the "Source and Summit of the Christian Life." We remember as a parish the centrality of the Eucharist in our worship and its power to transform us into the Body of Christ for an unbelieving world.

Jesus' Raising Lazarus from the Dead

John 11:43

Jesus cried out in a loud voice: "Lazarus come out!" This window reminds us of the immense love Jesus has for us and how death does not have the final answer. With great hope, we will one day be reunited in Christ with those who have gone before us.

St. Thomas Encounters the Risen Christ

John 20:28

Thomas moves from unbelief to belief. "My Lord and my God!" was his impassioned cry. We are reminded that Christ is present in the midst of our doubts, and we should never hesitate to turn to him in faith, even when we cannot see what lies ahead of us.

Rose Window

The term "Rose Window" is suggested by the fancied resemblance of the window with its traceries to the rose and its petals. The rose window is one of the most beautiful and characteristic features of medieval architecture, especially of the French Gothic, in which it achieved its most perfect development.

The Roman oculus (circular opening in the center of a dome or in a wall) became a window in the Romanesque period and can be found in churches and religious architecture throughout Europe dating from the middle of the 12th Century.

A Sanctuary of Beauty and Inspiration

“How lovely your dwelling, O Lord of hosts!” (Psalm 84:1)

In the years after the Second Vatican Council, there was a movement toward simplifying Church buildings and furnishing them without much of the imagery and statuary that had nourished Catholics throughout the ages. While there is wonderful beauty in simplicity, we need reminders that we are an incarnational and sacramental people. The Divine is more clearly revealed through that which is visible and sensory: great interior beauty and hushed quiet explains why Catholic churches have traditionally held an aura of God’s presence.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “To enter into the house of God, we must cross a threshold, which symbolizes passing from the world wounded by sin to the world of the new Life to which all men are called” (1186). On the occasion of the blessing of our new sanctuary, I hope and pray that we will be reminded of this guidepost. When we cross the threshold of St. John the Apostle Church, we usher ourselves into the presence of God and are reminded that this physical structure is a foretaste to the heaven to which we aspire.

Churches should be living catechisms, teaching people about their Faith through the senses. It is my hope that as you walk through our church, you are prayerfully taking a spiritual and intellectual pilgrimage in your heart and mind. Perhaps you will choose to meditate upon one or all of the stained glass windows, which are based on stories from the Gospel of John, or you might reflect on the Latin words of the Prologue of St. John’s Gospel. You could be inspired by the four Evangelists, who now guard the four corners of our church. You might be edified by the revised Crucifixion mural, which now depicts more clearly the Trinity, with the addition of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove and the presence of the Father suggested by a covering of clouds. Whichever truth you choose to contemplate, may your appreciation of the Catholic faith deepen.

I pray that none of us will ever lose a sense of awe when we enter into this house of the Lord, this house of the people of God. It is my hope that the aesthetic beauty of our church will remind us, during the celebration of Mass in particular, that “heaven and earth meet” and that, as Paul’s letter to the Hebrews says, “We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses.” (12:1)

My profound and heartfelt thanks to each of you who have sacrificed so much time, talent, and treasure to make this renovation a reality. We know that the Lord himself has blessed this endeavor, for “unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build.” (Psalm 127:1)

May the generations that follow be always reminded of your generosity and “give thanks to the Lord, for He is good”! (Psalm 107:1)

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Rob.

Extending the Foundation for Faith

Ever since our church was built in 1995, there has been a desire on the part of many to one day enclose the church ceiling. While essential fixes were undertaken from time to time, the desire to upgrade the church in a comprehensive way consistently took a back seat to more pressing needs. With the arrival of Father Rob Cole in 2009, a promise was made to renovate the church, with special emphasis on the ceiling. Early last year Father Cole saw the opportunity to finally undertake the long sought comprehensive church renovation. The primary desire for a church renovation project was to make our church a place that added beauty and warmth and to serve as an invitation to worship for all who entered.

Father Cole said, “The resulting sanctuary has to be warm, welcoming, and inspiring to all who enter.” We truly believe that mandate has been achieved through the efforts of so many faithful supporters. In the past year Father Rob provided a number of presentations to the parish in which he clearly stated that the sanctuary renovation was “not something thrown together. It was theologically thought through very carefully, with many, many issues” addressed.

A Journey to Spirituality through Renovation Phase II Capital Campaign

Early in 2014 the Diocesan Building Council gave its approval to continue the renovation concept and architectural development, with direction to return when final drawings were completed and a funding plan established. Shortly thereafter Father Rob commissioned a Capital Campaign Team of parishioners and office staff to move forward with solicitation and collection of the required funds.

From the beginning of the project all parishioners could see specifically what was envisioned for their worship center. Concurrently, parishioner consensus was solicited via newsletter articles, pastoral commentary at Mass, and “town hall” type meetings to show and discuss with SJA members the why’s and how’s to achieving a beautiful conclusion.

As with the 2011 Phase I Expansion (expansion of the church commons, new meeting rooms, and new parish offices), this Phase II renovation project could not begin until all required funds were in hand – $2 million dollars. An even greater challenge was to secure these funds in just ten months! If this contribution-time requirement could be met, then the goal to fully complete the sanctuary renovation before Advent 2015 could likely be achieved. This was a daunting task indeed, especially considering just three years previously we had completed the Phase I Capital Campaign, securing the required $1.5 million dollars in order to undertake Phase I construction. Following much prayer, as well as initial encouragement and substantial financial pledges from parishioners, Father Cole determined the project was viable and the SJA Capital Campaign Team was instructed to proceed in earnest with the $2 million dollar fundraising. There was strong confidence that once again our parishioners, with their track record of generosity and willingness to sacrifice for the good of the Church, would ultimately provide the necessary funds, and in the time frame required for construction. To keep visibility on our campaign progress, frequent updates were posted in the Sunday bulletin, special envelopes (“The Sky’s the Limit Sanctuary Project”) were added to the monthly envelope packs, and the goal thermometer was brought out of retirement to proudly track and display our progress for all to see.

The SJA Parish, in true form, reached the campaign goal in the time required and in January 2015 the Diocese was informed of our success. Final drawings and plans were then approved, and the Sanctuary Renovation Project began in earnest the very next month. To speed renovation as much as possible, most of the sanctuary was cleared and all Masses were moved from the church to the SJA school gymnasium for the next eight months.

Phase II Construction Review

The “Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy” reemphasizes that church buildings, as with all sacred art and furnishings, “should worthily and beautifully serve the dignity of worship”(n.122). Our renovation project began at the end of April 2015. During the last week of April volunteer parishioners undertook a major effort to remove all items from the interior of the church. Amazingly, the majority of the work was completed in just three days. All of the items were stored in a vacant storage area in the shopping center across the street from the church.

Some interesting facts:

- It took 37 distinct stencils and 10 colors to create the art work and design in the various coffers (recessed panels in the new ceiling).
- The majority of the square or rectangular coffers took 16 separate stencil applications to create each design.
- The borders of the coffers were applied in two distinct applications. The designs for the borders were created and done in the Conrad Schmitt studios in New Berlin, Wisconsin, then applied to canvas at the sanctuary.
- 4066 feet of canvas (slightly over ¾ of a mile) was used in the project.
- 368 feet of beam stencil was created and applied.
- The mural of the crucifixion and the 70’ sky mural were air brushed and hand painted.
- There are slightly over 1600 pieces of hand cut glass in each rose window. Only the blue glass in the center was painted.
- Each stained glass window is comprised of over 100 individually cut, hand painted and kiln-fired pieces of glass.

Thank You !!

In the Beginning...

EST NIHIL, QUOD FACTUM EST: IN IPSO VITA ERAT, ET VITA

The interiors of churches have always been teaching tools for the faithful. The paintings, inscriptions, colors, and scents are all for the purpose of glorifying God and teaching the people about who God is and His love for us. Church decoration also teaches us who we are in relation to God. Continuing in this tradition, text has been placed around the inside perimeter of the church at the base of the ceiling. The text begins in the south transept above the 1st Station of the Cross and reads to the right following a path around the church ending above the 14th Station of the Cross in the north transept. It is written in Latin, the official language of the Roman Catholic Church.

The chosen text is very significant to this parish. St. John the Apostle, our patron saint, also known as St. John the Evangelist and St. John the Beloved Disciple, is the author of this text. As an Evangelist he is recognized for his writing of a gospel that highlights the divinity of the Messiah, the Son of God, the Word (verbum). The text is taken from the Prologue.

Prologue to the Gospel of St. John the Apostle

| Latin Text | English Translation |
|---|---|
| In principio erat verbum, et verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat verbum. | In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (John 1:1) |
| Hoc erat in principio apud Deum Omnia per ipsum facta sunt: Est nihil, quod factum est; | He was in the beginning with God. (John 1:2) Through Him all came into being; Without Him nothing came to be; (John 1:3) |
| In ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum: et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt. | In Him was life, and that life was the light of men: (John 1:4) and the light shines in darkness, and the darkness did not understand it. (John 1:5) |
| Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. | That was the true light, which enlightened every man that comes into this world. (John 1:9) |
| In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. | He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. (John 1:10) |
| Et verbum caro factum est, et habitavit in nobis: Et vidimus gloriam eus, gloriam quasi unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritas. | And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us: And we have seen His glory, the glory of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. (John 1:14) |

Catechism in Stone

Each Catholic Church traditionally has been called a “catechism in stone”, which means that the building itself proclaims and gives witness to the truth of the Catholic Church and its beliefs. We are pleased to present to you a theological pilgrimage through the church for your personal edification and spiritual growth. Please refer to the other articles presented in this dedication booklet for discussion on the stain glass windows and the Latin inscription of the Prologue of John’s Gospel.

Although this design is not a new reality, St. John the Apostle was built to be a cruciform church, since its very structure represents the cross of Christ. The sanctuary, where the altars of sacrifice and repose and the proclamation of the Word of God are situated, is the head of the cross and is a privileged place where Christ our Head resides and from which His Word flows unto the people. The sanctuary is to be distinct from the place of the faithful (i.e. nave). You will notice that is why the painting of the ceiling of the sanctuary is distinct from the rest of the church. The nave represents the main body of the Cross, and the transepts are its arms. All the faithful sit in the nave and the transepts, focused on the sanctuary where Christ is the Head.

The revised mural of the Crucifixion reflects the Trinity with the addition of the Holy Spirit above the Cross and the sunburst, which extends itself through the apex of the sanctuary into the nave representing God the Father. This also represents the timeless sacrifice of Calvary, which is perpetuated through the celebration of the Mass. The Stations of the Cross, which begin to the right of the sanctuary, also point to the Paschal Mystery of Christ’s Suffering, Death, and Resurrection.

The renovation overall is an expression of themes present in the Gospel of St. John and the Book of Revelation. The 12 chandeliers represent the 12 Tribes of Israel and the 12 Apostles. The four Evangelists above the entrance to the sanctuary give witness to the Gospel of Christ, which is enthroned on the ambo. The center aisle holds three distinct mosaics of the Apostle John, which mark the liturgical processions of the Cross on Good Friday and the Paschal candle at Easter Vigil. There are three Chi-Rhos (i.e. the Greek letters for Jesus’ name) that indicate where the distribution of Holy Communion takes place at Mass. Both the mosaics of John and the Chi-Rhos reflect the Trinitarian reality of God.

The new baptistery is set apart from the Church proper and is at the very entrance of the Church, representing our entrance into the Body of Christ via the Sacrament of Baptism. The ceiling above the baptistery mirrors that above the sanctuary, creating another distinct space. Since the baptistery represents our entrance into the Church, it is from there that people sign themselves with holy water as a reminder of their own Baptism and why there are no fonts in the transepts. The Paschal candle resides by the baptistery outside of the Easter season and the holy oils blessed by the Bishop each Holy Thursday reside in the ambry in the very same area.

The altar, ambo, and presider’s chair are always prominent in the sanctuary and should be matching in style and presentation. Marble is used in all of these areas, as well as the baptistery and Columbarium, not only for the sake of continuity, but also for stability, reliability, and permanence for all ages. Like the Church founded on the Rock of St. Peter, these attributes are representative of God, who is stable, reliable, and permanent.

The organ is intrinsically identified with worship by enriching the hymn and psalm singing of the congregation. It is the principal instrument of the liturgy of the Church because of its versatility of sound and its grandness of art. Historically, the organ is the instrument of worship beginning with its appearance in churches around 800 A.D. It is the best support for congregational singing and the most majestic of all instruments befitting the liturgy.

As you reflect upon the beauty of this place, may you respond like the Psalmist who said, “One thing I ask of the Lord, this I seek: to dwell in the Lord’s house all the days of my life, to gaze on the Lord’s beauty, to visit his temple” (Psalm 27:4).

Sanctuary Renovation Completed

Entrust your works to the Lord, and your plans will succeed (Proverbs 16:3)

For we walk by faith, not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7)
